

“WITHOUT BORDERS”

INSTALLATION,
2013

The installation symbolizes the historical period of three countries – Germany, Poland and Czech, when they were divided by physical borders. Historical relationships of these countries are so tightly connected, that any violent separation, seems as an absurd, as the doors installed in the unlimited field space.